From Penn State Cooperative Extension

Table of Contents

- 1. 2006/07 Regional Viticulture and Enology Events Calendar
- 2. Mark Greenspan Visit to PA and LINY

Please find attached an early version of the 2007 vit/enol regional events calendar. You can see there is a lot going on and I urge growers to mark dates on your calendar of important meetings in your area. There are many opportunities for all growers from new to advanced to learn. If you have other events to add to the calendar please contact me. Further revisions will be released as event information is updated.

Remember: Mark Greenspan will lecture and be available for questions at a workshop on Tuesday, December 5 at the Farm and Home Center from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. This is a great opportunity to interact and learn from a top notch viticulturist. A wide range of practical grape growing topics will be covered. Mark writes for Wine Business Monthly and Practical Winery and Vineyard magazines and operates his own viticulture consulting company called Advanced Viticulture (<http://www.advancedvit.com/>) Workshop cost is $25. Please pre-register by calling 717-394-6851. Mark will also appear on Long Island at the LIHREC in Riverhead on Wednesday, March 6. To register contact Libby Tarleton at 631-727-3595.
